FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2021 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

This bill would establish a private right of action for individuals to seek civil damages against any social media company that intentionally fact checks, deletes, or uses an algorithm to disfavor, shadow ban, or otherwise censor the religious or political speech of a platform user. The bill also requires social media companies to prevent bullying or harassing behavior on the company's platform. While the bill contains a provision that the Attorney General may exercise discretion in deciding whether or not to bring a civil action against a social media platform for a violation of the provisions of the bill, the Department of Law anticipates that there would be no fiscal impact to the department from this bill should it pass.
